

the public library bathroom sink is where some of the homeless wash their bodies and dirty feet and clean their sores.
you should not feel scorn or privilege...
someday it will become the water you drink.

cleansing the thoughts.

wf.h.

2018