

it is settled.
today there is
nothing left to do.
the wheel is turning
the self and the not self
never knowing which way or why
it turns.
settled before nonbeing engaged being.
settled before being engaged nonbeing.
after beginning
before ending
before beginning
after ending
in the unsettled remains
of the idea of tomorrow.
and what is an idea of tomorrow...
 it is the place you
 cannot will to stay.

it is settled.
