

today is going to be emotional
without that there is only the sense of meaninglessness or that meaning does not exist at all.

emotions are how we are webbed and attached to the magic that formed a spine.

even when the magic is inhumane and upon us and is what we are...
it still is our only way back to our humanity
without our inhumanity.

today is going to be emotional.
