

you spend time there
visiting exotic locations visiting erotic locations finding enemies finding spiritual lovers finding creature lovers doing symbolic things to stay alive exploring spinning mysteries learning to die in the void transforming the suspended obeying the pleasures of disobedience communicating with the unknowns communicating with the unknowable.

why call it a dream...

either you wake up and you are changing or it will come back later with new tricks of the old trade or it will never come back to test you again and you will have to think on your own for the rest of your life or you will have to reconcile the moment of horror when it drags itself back home late at night revealing it has been sleeping with others that it likes more than you.
